Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, May 28 (National). — The Giants' rush was stemmed by Grover Gieveland Alexander to-day, the Cubs romping away with the third game of the series, for a victory by 4 to 2. The triumph was the eighth of a row for Alexander, whose hitting in part was responsible for two of the runa registered by his team. Arthur Nehf hurled for the Glants and limited the Cubs to six hits, but Mitchell's response. six hits, but Mitchell's men managed to squeeze in some sacrifice hits, which counted mightily in the scoring. Arthur Fletcher was banished in the sixth inning by Umpire Rigier for dis-
